"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Pt 4:10)

JANUARY 28, 2018
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“We do not, it seems, live in a time that values forgiveness. Broad and various social anxieties; the fear engendered by a world that seems to have gone out of control; a sense of entitlement and of victimization; demands for legal and financial compensation—all these and more have made the very idea of forgiveness seem like weakness.... However, many people quite wrongly presume that forgiveness means to deny the effect of an offense, or to minimize its significance, or to say that something dreadful was not really so bad, and can be dismissed without comment or control...

‘forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us’, these may be the most challenging words of the Lord’s prayer.

Said aloud or silently, they implicitly acknowledge that one stands always in need of God’s forgiveness—[and emphasize] both human sinfulness and God’s limitless forgiveness...”

- Donald Spoto, In Silence: Why We Pray

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

to be consoled as to console,

to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.
